But that's just what Kelly Corrigan has set out to do here. In her New York Times bestselling memoirs, Corrigan distilled our core relationships to their essences, showcasing a warm, easy storytelling style. Now, in Tell Me More, she's back with a deeply personal, unflinchingly honest, and often hilarious examination of the essential phrases that turn the wheel of life. In "I Don't Know," Corrigan wrestles to make peace with uncertainty, whether it's over invitations that never came or a friend's agonizing infertility. In "No," she admires her mother's ability to set boundaries and her liberating willingness to be unpopular. In "Tell Me More," a facialist named Tish teaches her something important about listening. And in "I Was Wrong," she comes clean about her disastrous role in a family fight—and explains why saying sorry may not be enough. With refreshing candor, a deep well of empathy, and her signature desire to understand "the thing behind the thing," Corrigan swings between meditations on life with a preoccupied husband and two mercurial teenage daughters to profound observations on love and loss. With the streetwise, ever-relatable voice that defines Corrigan's work, Tell Me More is a moving and meaningful take on the power of the right words at the right moment to change everything. Praise for Tell Me More "It is such a comfort just knowing that Kelly Corrigan exists: she is somehow both wise and self-deprecating; funny but unafraid of pain; frank but gentle. She is the sister/mother/best friend we all wish we could have—and because of this big-hearted book, we all get to."—Ariel Levy, author of The Rules Do Not Apply "With full-bodied humor and radical sensitivity, Kelly Corrigan transforms the mundane pain of life into a necessary spiritual text of sorts, one that reminds us that we have the right to grieve but the obligation to be grateful. This book will remind you that you are human—and of the fragile loveliness of being so."—Lena Dunham LITTLE WORM, BIG WORRY. Today is the day: Little Worm is going to run a whole mile! But oh no--it's raining! Little Worm starts to feel sad, and then he feels funny. He's so disappointed. Little Worm has been looking forward to this day for weeks. What if he can't run at all today? Laura Ann Pierce's story Little Worm: A Story about Worry models how to handle worry and anxiety when things don't turn out the way we expect. Join Little Worm as he learns how to readjust his plans and work through his anxiety. Born a slave in Georgia in 1818, Bridget "Biddy" Mason learned to survive in a harsh world. "When Dee-Dee finds herself excluded from various activities and clubs by the other kids, she and her teacher come up with a plan to show what good friends are and how they should treat each other."--Amazon.com. When visiting a hospital in Montreal, Quebec, a few years ago, best-selling author India Desjardins met a 10-year-old girl with leukemia. The girl told her she that she was fed up. All the stories about children like her who had cancer had sad endings, so she didn't want to read them. She asked India to write a story about cancer with a happy ending instead, one with laughter and romance. India did, and the story became this book. I think about everything I'll miss if they tell me I'm going to die...my mom, my dad, my sister, cookies, TV shows I'll never get to see the end of, walking outside when it's really nice, the smell of autumn, the starry sky on a full moon, my grandparents, my grandpa's lasagna, kissing Victor, Victor's eyes, Victor's voice, Victor's smell, Victor's hands...Victor. A teenage girl heads towards the hospital waiting room where the doctors are going to tell her how much time she's got to live. As she walks, she thinks about her journey up to this point...the terrible decor in the hospital, wearing a headscarf, the horrible treatments, but also being with her friends, family, and her new boyfriend Victor. While this story has a happy ending, the girl offers an honest account of what it feels like to be a teenager with cancer. Like how she just wants everyone to treat her like a normal person and stop telling her how strong she is—especially her mom. And how, even though everyone is telling her to stay positive, she sometimes loses hope and even wants to die to make the pain go away. Dreamlike illustrations elegantly convey the emotional complexities. Like the girl in this story, the girl that India met at the hospital is now cured. She also fell in love during her illness. Today, around eight out of ten children who are diagnosed with cancer are cured. This story was written to give any child who has cancer hope. "Rosy-cheeked and wrapped in blue, with a flower in her hair, Death rides a pink bike. Death, a greeneyed little girl in this pastel world, visits small animals with soft fur and big animals with sharp teeth. She lingers with a kindly grandmother as they knit one last scarf together. She wanders through surroundings of gentle beauty and she tells us who she is. For parents of children facing the loss of a family member, a friend, or a pet, this book finds words to express what is often so difficult to explain. It ends with such a feeling of uplift and acceptance that readers of any age will turn the last page with a smile and a tear"--Excerpt from Amazon.com. If there is something i love the most in this life .... I believe it is ... socializing with the people i meet on the timeline of my life. And i smile .... seeing what might even look as a total nonsense ....cause i met such a large spectrum of totally different souls. Quite soon after the war from Ukraine started .... me and my family hosted people coming from there to my country. I had the chance to meet in this way ... lots of lost souls .... going to an unclear direction ... having no idea about what will happen tomorrow. They were on the path of a forced change .... and it was no chance as things to become better quite soon. ... or at least not in the near future. Being retired .... not having what to do anyway ... spent all my time in their company. I just loved their presence. Some ... connected with me from the first second .... but i also met some that found too weird that i was helping them and did not wanted to be so friendly from the beginning. In the end .... I became the friend of all of them. It was probably the first time in my life when i was investing all my time and energy trying to help the others .... and forget about my own interests. And that was something ... new for me. It looked like ... i was following a new path for my life ... and i liked it. One of the ladies .... told me one day .... "Becoming a refugee is about change ... and mainly changing our values in life. Not so long time ago ... i cared a lot about what new jacket or shoes i will buy ... but now after losing all the 3 houses we owned in Mariupol ... and almost all my clothes and shoes ... i simple smile. Today i wear clothes from the centers created for helping the refugees ... but i am happy that me and my family ... are alive ... and together. I don't know if i really became a better soul ... but I totally changed my values of life." For that lady .... being a refugees was a totally new experience ... same as for myself helping the others was a totally new way of spending my life. Without realizing .... I started little by little to change my values .... and my life. 2 years ago if someone would tell me that i will spend my time like that ... i would laugh saying that is a horrible joke ... but today ... i just love my new friends ... the ukrainian refugees. And i love them mostly... cause in their companion i succeeded to show to the world the beautiful side of myself. And it was ... so damn easy ... and i wonder why i haven't done that long time ago. Today i could have been a totally different person .... one with beautiful values ... as human being. But you see ... it's never too late. So ... the russian-ukrainian war was a great opportunity ... for myself. Sounds weird ... but it really was the right time for me and maybe many others to see life from a totally different perspective. And once the process of change started i just hoped that everything will continue for the inner self in the same style.
